

Bio & Links For Films and Videos

Giorgos Efthimiou lives in Athens. He is a film director, performer, visual artist, and curator. He works experientially in the fields of the absurd, punk, and poetic melodrama, more as a pariah rather than as an artist. He has created more than 40 independent films and videos, which have been presented at festivals (as Oberhausen, Jihlava, Leiden etc) and other venues around the world. He has also worked as a photographer and editor in many productions. As a curator, his name is associated with the Pugnant Film Series, which he founded.

With Pugnant Film Series, he has organized dozens of film events and has screened more than 600 films, personally inviting many of his favorite directors such as Khavn De La Cruz, Keja Ho Krammer, Alexandra Gulea, Dagie Brundert, Stavros Psyllakis, Devin Horan, Vincent Dieutre and many others. These screenings have taken place in cinemas, squares, tunnels, caves, and abandoned buildings, in a continuous effort to reclaim human presence in public space. Pugnant Film Series is an independent, self-funded movement that exists because it believes that Cinema Will Save Us.

As a performer, he has made numerous performances on alternative stages in Athens as well as in public spaces. He consistently collaborates with the radical troupe Anosia and has also collaborated with The Brockas (Philippines) and Theatre Aapoda group.

As a visual artist, using mainly oil paints, cooking stoves, aquariums, recyclable materials, and trash, he has created live visuals for many musicians such as Central Pozitronics, Yannis Arapis, Dance With Invisible Partners, and others. In the theater, he has also created similar visual shows for the work of groups and directors such as Kosmoi apo Gala, Kostas Tsioukas, and Theano Metaxa.

Finally, he has written three books of poetry and short stories.

FILMS

Stathis Psaltis, you are alive (2026 -6')

Stathis Psaltis was a famous comic actor. We went to the abandoned Park Theatre, where he appeared at the beginning of his career. Using a 35mm print of one of his TV films, an overhead projector, and a rotisserie spit, we made a film inside the space itself.

This film functions as a resurrection ritual for both the actor and the theatre.

Skylarchos “DogLord” Davelis: to fix a logical error (2025 -8')

Almost all the caves of Attica are called Davelis caves, named after the notorious robber of the same name. However, the robber Davelis probably did not know of their existence. I made this pataphysical video to correct this logical error and restore the truth.

Άχρηστη Ταινία – Useless Movie (2024-75')

I moved into a new house, where a pile of boxes was waiting for me. The boxes in the bedroom were opened by Boro, my dog. In one of them he found a hard drive, labeled as "Useless Footage" and sublabeled as "jerk-diary-random".

"Hard drive with useless footage" shouted the dog from the other room, "should I throw it away?"

Throw it away I replied. But when I fell asleep I remembered a moment on this hard drive that I wouldn't like to miss. We went with the dog and searched all the trash in the neighborhood, but we couldn't find the disk. Instead we found a movie, called "Useless Movie," which is this movie and contains a little bit of everything.
